'Amazing MuayThai Festival 2023' set to thrill spectators in Hua Hin seaside setting

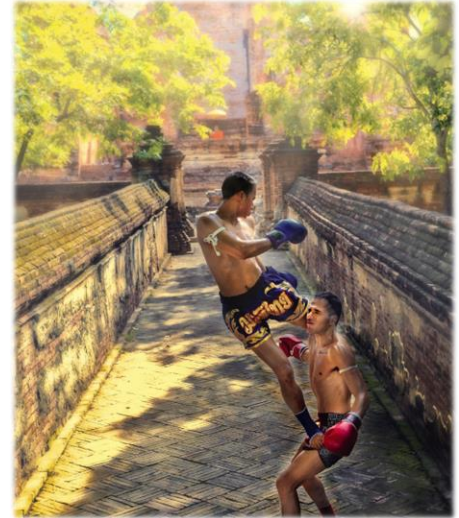

TAT is pleased to announce that the "AmazingMuay Thai Festival 2023" will be held at Rajabhat Park in the famous seaside resort of Hua Hin, Prachuap Khiri Khan province, on 4-6 February, 2023.

The AmazingMuay Thai Festival aims to promote cultural tourism and is in line with the Thai government's policy to promote Thailand's soft-power foundations, which include Food, Film, Fashion, Fight, and Festival. Among the activities on the program of the festival are a Wai Kru ceremony with 5,000 participants to set a new Guinness World Record on 6 February. The Wai Kru ceremony is a ritual performed by fighters before a fight.

Thailand's winter weather is warm and lovely

Thailand's fifth-largest island, Koh Phangan, is the perfect juxtaposition of relaxation and excitement. Koh Phangan is not only home to the world-famous Moon Party, which is held once each month, but it is also home to peaceful beaches on its northern coast.

With a growing health & wellness scene, you can relax at one of many meditation and yoga retreats, or learn the practice of Muay Thai at a camp on the island.
